Dear Sir or Madam:

Apparently Louis DeJoy, the current Postmaster General, has pending proposals/recommendations/proceedings on the PRC docket.

Among his proposals:

- 1. Suspend aircraft delivery across the United States for first class mail and switch to over-the-road truck delivery. This will only serve to further delay mail delivered in a timely fashion throughout our country.
- 2. Recommending post office closures across the United States.

I vehemently oppose these recommendations which will further erode the mail service that has been firmly established in the United States. I have depended on the postal service to deliver mail and packages to my brother when he served in Vietnam, and currently I receive my medications from an online pharmacy, and all the years in between. I have never had a serious issue with the USPS.

I recently sent a small package from Illinois to Ohio and here is the tracking information: Illinois to Ohio to North Carolina to Pittsburgh PA. Does that make sense to you? I have no idea if the individual I mailed it to has received it.

I oppose these recommendations. Mr. DeJoy needs to be fired as Postmaster General since his only transparent goal is to further erode and weaken the USPS system to accomplish his objective of privatizing mail services so he and his wealthy partners can profit billions in the future. He has no interest in helping American citizens retain decent delivery along with reasonable prices.

We need to preserve an established organization that has an excellent history of providing efficient services to the American citizenry and keep 600,000 postal workers employed. We want and need exceptional services.

Sincerely,

Cecilia M. Lynch
